In the lower forms of advertising life, the ob-sessing idea is to put a picture of the factory into the space. If possible, two pictures of the factory.

Justice Tierney reserved decision yesterday in the habeas corpus proceeding brought by Mrs. Margaret C. White to obtain the custody of her three-year-old daughter, Marian Hope White, from Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Williams, of 152 East Twenty-second Street. The mother says she signed a paper of adoption without knowing that she was giving away her child.

TOKIO, May 20 (By The Associated Press).—Owing to the Emperor's illness, the Empress read the Imperial address at the annual meeting of the Japanese Red Cross to-day. The address said that the situation in the Far East was still too unsettled to permit the withdrawal of Japanese forces from Siberia.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The Senate, on motion of Majority Leader Lodge, to-day eliminated from the annual army appropriation bill provisions restricting naval aviation to operations in connection with fleet movements and land bases. The eliminated provisions were opposed by both Secretaries Daniels and Baker.

Under the House provisions naval aviation would have been limited to operations with fleets, but the Senate Military Committee broadened it so as to include fleet shore bases.

Marian, brought to court by her parents, romped about, laughing and shouting, unmindful of the dignified, silk-robed justice on the bench. She showed a great fondness for Mr. and Mrs. Williams and an apparently equal affection for her mother.

Mrs. White testified her husband, Harry E. White, deserted her. She obtained employment at Sea Girt, N. J., in August, 1918, and left her child in the care of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, paying $20 a month board. In August, 1919, Mrs. White said. She signed what she thought was a writ of temporary adoption. Later she learned
